

BIKE

College life can be complicated, but Temoc keeps it simple. He bikes around UT Dallas, saving time while saving the planet. Temoc has front-door parking for class and fun at more than 1,000 bicycle rack spaces across campus. And riding his bike helps him reduce air pollution in Dallas-Fort Worth.

His name is Temoc, and he bikes on campus. It's how he gets around.

Visit utdallas.edu/getaround to see how you can get around.

PARK

College life can be fast-paced, but Temoc stays cool. He drives his car to campus, and he knows where to park. Temoc bought a green parking permit to save money, and he can park in dozens of lots around the UT Dallas campus, with hundreds of spaces available to him 24 hours a day, seven days a week.

His name is Temoc, and he parks on campus. It's how he gets around.

Visit utdallas.edu/getaround to see how you can get around.

RIDE

UT DALLAS

College life can be hectic, but Temoc has it under control. He rides the Comet Cruiser to get where he needs to go. With free shuttle service six days a week, including routes to Wal-Mart on Fridays, he can easily travel campus and beyond. And when he wants a little adventure, he uses Comet Cruiser service to connect to Dallas Area Rapid Transit. With his free DART student pass, Temoc can visit area attractions like the Dallas Museum of Art, the West End and more.

His name is Temoc, and he's on the Comet Cruiser. It's how he gets around.

Visit utdallas.edu/getaround to see how you can get around.